Saturday, October 3, 2009 at StarWest

Judge: Lisa Holderle, St. Louis, MO 'L' graduate

StarDust is a fun, informal dressage schooling show. It is open to all students of StarWest. Dress is casual. You can ride any test you want. It's the perfect opportunity to try a new test or new level. Questions? Call 217-546-9400 or e-mail alice.martin@mac.com for more information.

Entries must be received by September 30. List the three tests you want to ride in your order of preference. All riders will get to ride at least their first two choices. Entry fees are $2.00 per class. Make your check payable to StarWest.

The classes will run more or less in ascending order of difficulty. Small awards will be given to the top six rides in each class. There are also awards for riders who receive scores of 58% or better in open classes (Training 1, Open and above). Training Level riders will receive a genuine StarWest T-shirt; First Level, a StarWest baseball cap; Second Level, a StarWest polo shirt; Third Level, a StarWest jacket; Fourth Level, a StarWest saddle pad; Prix St. Georges, a StarWest cooler; I1, embroidered bridle bag; I2, embroidered saddle bag; GP, embroidered suit bag. Riders may win each of these prizes only once every five years. A special award will go to 2009's Most Improved Rider.

READ THIS CAREFULLY: Lunch is potluck. Homemade entry in this "class", which will be judged by Alice Martin, is mandatory. The coveted "Golden Spoon" will be awarded in the following categories: salad, entree, bread, dessert, and presentation, if warranted. Enter as many categories as you like. Drinks and tableware will be furnished. (Dessert Winner Hint: think dark chocolate, raspberries and almonds.)
